

Leave New Jersey's Do Not Call statutes alone. As a consumer, I wish to have the maximum flexibility regarding who may or may not call me, and NJ's statute gives me the most protections of any in the nation.

Please let the states set policies which they decide are best for their region.

Thank you.